

As a Field Service Technician, I use the Weather and Traffic Station throughout the day getting around trouble spots here in Houston. Our local stations only offer traffice and weather reports during peak hours of the day, whereas XM broadcasts these reports throughout the day. I depend on this service and thought this was a good idea when it was launched.